

Darragh O'Toole

Darragh has just wrapped filming on the second series of COOPER AND FRY, playing the role of Lewis Quinn, directed by Rob and Ronan Burke for Clapperboard and Channel 5.

Last year, he played Cormac in ONE SWEET HOUR for Samson Films, directed by Declan Recks. His other recent screen work includes James in BAIT opposite Riz Ahmed for Amazon, and Billy in HAUNTED HARMONY MYSTERIES: MURDER IN G MAJOR opposite Tamera Mowry for Hallmark Films.

He also filmed the title role in FOR THE SAFETY OF THEO in Los Angeles, written and directed by Christopher Macken.

Further screen credits include Colin Carroll in DER IRLAND KRIMI, a Patrol Officer in THE NIGHT CALLER for Channel 5, Yann in Amazon Prime's THE WHEEL OF TIME, Romus in Apple TV+'s FOUNDATION and Liam in PEAKY BLINDERS.

On stage, he played Lampy in Decadent Theatre's production of Donal Ryan's FROM A LOW AND QUIET SEA at the Galway Arts Festival.

Darragh played Kian in the second series of the acclaimed Virgin Media Television drama BLOOD and appeared across 66 episodes of RED ROCK as series regular Conor Tyrell.

His film credits include a lead role in SOUTH and an appearance in Darren Thornton's critically acclaimed, IFTA-winning A DATE FOR MAD MARY, alongside leading roles in the short films CHICKEN OUT, directed by Richard Keane, and CONTRA, directed by Daragh Murphy.

Other television credits include MOONE BOY, directed by Chris O'Dowd, and ROY and THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING WHATEVER, both directed by IFTA-winning brothers Rob and Ronan Burke.
