

Alice McCarthy

Alice most recently appeared in the role of Pia Morgan in tv series FBI: INTERNATIONAL for CBS and the role of Lucy D'Arcy in the first series of HARRY WILD opposite Jane Seymour for Acorn TV.

Alice graduated from the Bristol Old Vic in 2014. Upon graduating, she landed the leading role in Jon Brittain's ground-breaking play, ROTTERDAM. The show premiered at Theatre 503 and then transferred to Trafalgar Studios where it became the first transgender themed play to win an Olivier Award for Outstanding Achievement in an Affiliate Theatre. The Olivier winning production then transferred to New York for a sell out run at 59E59 Theatre, before recently returning to the West End for it's final run at the Arts Theatre.

Other theatre credits include the role of Bella in YOU GAME directed by Matthew Boseley at RADA Studios, Helen in BORIS: WORLD KING directed by Yaz Al Shafter at the Trafalgar Studios, MOTHER IS A VERB directed by Sarah Ersdale at the Bush Theatre, STALEMATE directed by Rachel Causer at the Bunker Theatre, and SUCH FILTHY F*CKS directed by Oli Forsyth at the Pleasance Theatre, Edinburgh.

Screen Credits include the role of Bella West in BBC series DOCTORS and Nanny Harewood in the feature film of DOWNTON ABBEY.

Alice is based in London and Dublin.
