

Myles Feerick

Myles is a recent graduate of the Gaiety School of Acting Professional Acting Training Course. He also studied Musical Theatre at the American College Dublin.

Recent stage credits include the role of '1' in UPSTAIRS directed by Daragh Fitzgerald and Pilades in ORESTE directed by Makrià Midèn.

He recently appeared in TOY SHOW: THE MUSICAL which played at the National Convention Centre over the festive period.

Other recent stage credits include Lee Coffey's STRANGE DAYS directed by Tracy Ryan at Smock Alley Theatre and the role of Demetrius in Shakespeare's A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM directed by Pete McCamley for Menapia Theatre Company.

Hair: Dark Brown

Height: 5'10 (178cm)

Eyes: Blue

Theatre

Toy Show: The Musical | Ensemble

Strange Days | Ensemble

A Midsummer Night's Dream | Demetrius

Seimi Campbell

Tracy Ryan

Pete McCamley

RTE

Smock Alley Theatre

Menapia Theatre Co.

Accents & Dialects:

Native:

Irish-Southern

High standard:

American-New York, American-Southern States, Australian, Bristol, Canadian, Cork, Dublin, English-Standard,

French, German, Heightened RP, Irish-Northern, Liverpool, RP, Scottish-Standard, South African, Welsh-Standard, Yorkshire

Music & Dance

Highly skilled: Piano

Skilled: Singer-Songwriter, Singing (general), Ballet & Jazz Dance training.

Performance

Skilled: Actor-Musician, Actor-Singer, Clown, Comedy, Comedy Improv, Musical Comedy, Musical Theatre, Outdoor Performances, Professional Singer, Writer/Director - Comedy Fringe