

Sinéad Watters

Sinéad most recently played the role of Briony in A+E series RED ELECTION. Further television credits include the lead role of Aisling Callary opposite Iain Glen in JACK TAYLOR directed by Stuart Orme, the role of Jacinta alongside Aiden Gillen in the RTÉ mini-series CHARLIE, directed by Kenneth Glanaan and Charlie McCarthy and ARTISTS directed by Rachel McElwaine, in which she played the role of Rachel.

She graduated from the Gaiety School of Acting advanced performance course in 2011 before going on to join the first year of the Factory Screen Acting Programme (2013) under the Direction of Lance Daly, Kirsten Sheridan, Shimmy Marcus, John Carney, Maureen Hughes and Gerry Grennell.

Playing Age: 28 - 36

Height: 5 ft. 5"

Eye Colour: Blue

Music: Alto

Other Skills: Improvisation, good comic timing, boxing, running, crossfit, stage combat, fencing, horse riding, snow boarding

Accents: English RP, Liverpool, Cockney, Scottish, Scandinavian, General American, Southern American, Northern Irish, a range of Irish accents

TELEVISION

Red Election | Briony
Jack Taylor: Cross | Aisling Callary
The Breaks | Romey
Charlie | Jacinta
Artists | Rachel

Various
Stuart Orme
Allen Doyle
Kenneth Glanaan & Charlie McCarthy
Rachel McElwaine

A+E Television
ZDF
Parkvale Pictures
Element Pictures, Touchpaper, RTÉ
McElwaine Productions

FILM

The Letter (Short) | Sam
A Mind Marred (Short) | Alice
Hazards (Short) | June
The Audition (Short) | Natasha
also wrote and produced
The Truth (Short) | Jess
David Burke – Love Hate (Music Video) |
Lead

Kevin O'Farrell
Karen Connell
Enda O'Connor
Allen Doyle

O'Luchion Productions

Parkvale Productions

THEATRE

Anonymous | Elaine
Pulp Fiction | Mia
The Night Season | Judith
The Importance of Being Earnest | Cecily
Cardew

Mark McAuley
Shimmy Marcus
David Scott
Kristian Marken

Endnote Productions
Culture Night 2013
Company D