

Walter McCabe

Walter most recently appeared in the role of 'Little Boy' in the live action/animated short CITY OF ROSES directed by Andrew Kavanagh.

Other recent credits include the role of 'The Child' opposite Colin Farrell and Ben Whishaw in Oscar-nominated director Yorgos Lanthimos' first English language movie, THE LOBSTER, and Percy Shelley Jr. in THE FRANKENSTEIN CHRONICLES, directed by Benjamin Ross for ITV.

On stage, he played the lead role of Kevin in CHRISTMAS WRAPPED UP, directed by Alison Vard Miller at The Mill Theatre, Dundrum.

He shows strong stage presence and has a natural sense of timing.

Playing Age: 10-14
Height: 4 ft. 10" (147cm)
Eye Colour: Hazel
Hair Colour: Dark Brown
DOB: 9th July 2004

Good singing voice

Film

City of Roses (short) | Little Boy
 The Lobster | The Child

Andrew Kavanagh
 Yorgos Lanthimos

Kavaleer
 BFI / IFB

Television

The Frankenstein Chronicles | Percy Shelley Jr.

Benjamin Ross

Rainmark Films / ITV Encore

Theatre

Christmas Wrapped Up | Kevin

Alison Vard Miller

Miss Ali's Stage School

OTHER

Walter has weekly private lessons with Alison Vard Miller studying performance. He has sat the Irish Board of Speech and Drama Junior 2 Musical Theatre exam (88%) and is currently working towards an exam for the Royal Irish Academy of Music.

He has attended Miss Ali's Stage School, Dundrum, since February 2013, where he is in two separate groups, studying acting, dance and singing. In November 2016 Walter was a finalist of Junior Eurovision Éire, TG4's selection show for that year's Junior Eurovision Song Contest. In 2013, he was awarded the Annual Scholarship in recognition of his talent, dedication and enthusiasm. He also attends the Centre for Talented Youth, DCU (since October 2011), has done modules in acting, writing, Harry Potter & mythology, among others. Walter enjoys reading, tennis, art, cinema & theatre and computer games.