

Sonya Kelly

Sonya most recently appeared on stage in Pan Pan Theatre Company's THE IMPORTANCE OF NOTHING, playing the role of Lady Lancing. On screen she most recently filmed the role of Mrs. Lakey alongside Zoe Saldana in Anders Walter's feature I KILL GIANTS. Her most recent projects include her award winning self-penned show HOW TO KEEP AN ALIEN, which premiered as part of the 2014 Dublin Fringe Festival and has since toured internationally, with performances in Finland and the US scheduled for 2016.

A talented writer and comic actress, Sonya wrote the highly acclaimed FURNITURE for Druid and wrote and performed her own one-woman show THE WHEELCHAIR ON MY FACE, which was listed as a Critic's Pick in the NEW YORK TIMES in 2013. The show also won the Edinburgh Fringe First Award and was nominated by entertainment.ie for a Little Gem Award for one of the top ten performances of 2011. Sonya was also nominated for Best Actress for her role as Felicia Umbral in THE TRUTH OF THE MOON at Absolut Fringe Festival 2011.
