

Jamie O'Neill

Jamie is currently filming the role of Aiden Flynn in Season 2 of COOPER AND FRY for Channel 5/Clapperboard and will shortly appear on stage in CYCLONE for ANU, directed by Louise Lowe, as part of Dublin Theatre Festival. He previously appeared in THE GOOD LUCK CLUB for ANU, also directed by Louise Lowe.

Recent screen credits include THE HARDACRES Season 2, playing the role of Albert for Channel 5, directed by Stephen Bradley, and the role of Ben in the RTÉ Storyland short film THE ICK, directed by Jason Branagan.

Recent stage credits include ANU's critically acclaimed production of HAMMAM at the Abbey Theatre. Prior to this, Jamie appeared opposite Marie Mullen in Deirdre Kinahan's two-hander THE SAVIOUR for Landmark Productions in New York and Dublin. He was named a "Rising Talent" for 2024 by Chris O'Rourke in his Arts Review 2023 round-up.

Further stage credits include STAGING THE TREATY, LOLLING, BY THE MOUTH OF FLOWERS, BOOK OF NAMES and THE ANVIL (ANU); LUCK JUST KISSED YOU HELLO and THE SHADOW OF A GUNMAN (Abbey Theatre); MINEFIELD and DINNER IN MULBERRY STREET (Dublin Fringe Festival); MONSTER (EGM Productions); FALLEN (Irish Writers Centre); OUR ISLAND (Mirari Productions); BORSTAL BOY (Gaiety Theatre); WALKING THE ROAD (Cavan Theatre Festival); ALONE IT STANDS (Verdant Productions); and BROADENING (A Glass Doll Production).

Further screen credits include REDEMPTION; BLOOD Seasons 1 & 2 (Virgin Media One); STRIKING OUT and FAIR CITY (RTÉ); TRIAL OF THE CENTURY (Left Eye Films); and AN CRISIS EILE (TG4).

Jamie is a graduate of the Gaiety School of Acting and is based in Dublin.
