

Bosco Hogan

Bosco is one of Ireland's best-known and most respected actors. He recently completed filming the Ridley Scott feature THE LAST DUEL and the role of Athelred in Netflix series VALHALLA. On stage, he recently appeared in Brian Friel's THE ENEMY WITHIN directed by Caitriona McLaughlin at An Grianan, Letterkenny, Una McKevitt's ONE GOOD TURN directed by Emma Jordan at the Abbey Theatre and the Druid productions of THE SEAGULL at Coole Park and RICHARD III at the Lincoln Center, New York. His most recent credits include the role of the Bank Manager in MISS SCARLET & THE DUKE for A+E Studios, Ugo in INTO THE BADLANDS for AMC, and the role of Seán Dóta in SIVE directed by Garry Hynes for Druid Theatre Co. Prior to that he played the role of James Lane in the forthcoming docu-drama CITIZEN LANE directed by Thaddeus O'Sullivan for RTÉ, JIMMY'S HALL directed by Graham McLaren for The Abbey Theatre, Druid's KING OF THE CASTLE by Eugene McCabe, directed by Garry Hynes, and Stacie Passon's feature WE HAVE ALWAYS LIVED IN THE CASTLE, with Sebastian Stan. He would also be familiar to many from his role as Bishop Piccolomini in Neil Jordan's THE BORGHIAS. Extended CV available upon request.
